ACC is not responsible for delays, damage, loss, increased costs or other unfavorable conditions that arise as a result of such termination. Furthermore, in the event of such termination, ACC may retain such part of the Participant’s Theater fees as shall be required to recompense ACC for expenses incurred up to the time of such termination or incident to such termination, with no liability for either party to the Theater Agreement. The Participant waives all claims for damages or recovery of payments made, except for the return of the pro-rated amount paid for the Theater slot less expenses incurred by ACC.

The Participant further agrees that upon acceptance of the Theater Agreement by ACC, with or without appropriate or timely payment of any and all fees, the Theater Agreement shall become binding and enforceable in accordance with its terms. The Theater Agreement will be binding on each party’s successors. If any term, clause or provision hereof is held invalid or unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity or operation of any other term, clause or provision, and the invalid term, clause or provision shall be deemed to be severed from the Theater Agreement.

8. LIABILITY
